

Complex Service

Service serves clients using some application logic, while maintaining state. Persistence not required, performance is.

Database implementation ensures correct implementation of schema and queries provided by developer.

Developer time required to manually implement correct & efficient state management.

Network connection and generalised database implementation compromise performance.